

Door Automation

Access Etc supply and install automation for all types of doors, gateways and entrances in both commercial and private dwellings. Providing swing powered automation to existing doors or supply full replacement door units. Sliding door units are manufactured for new builds and refurbishment works. Our product technology is designed for continual use to ensure properties remain accessible and help to meet the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 guidelines (DDA).

Swing Door Automation

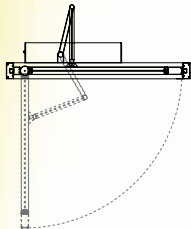

Internal Doors. Etc offer automation for both double and single leaf doors.

Versatile operation tailored to the specific demands of your location. Switched control allows easy change between manual, push pad operation and fully automatic.

Automatic doors

External Doors. Low energy design suitable on continual use thoroughfares

All access automation, including entrance ways, fire doors, gates, Industrial shutters and toilet access. Etc onsite consultants provide guidance and identify the most suitable operation to meet your environment.

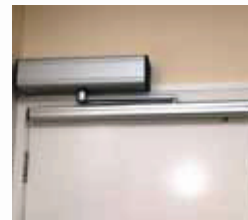

Our full site survey and report provides a detailed layout of the operation and ancillary components.

Ancillary components -

- Safety sensors / hazard detection.
- Emergency break glass override.
- On/Off manual key switch.
- Hinge protection device.
- Intercom interface
- Magnetic locking.
- On door signage.

Inward swing side arm

Outwards swing articulate arm

New Door units

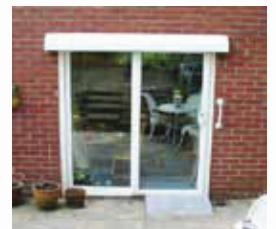

Sliding Doors

Replacement Doors

Domestic Adaptations

Contact us today for more formation about access products

Access Etc. designs for a better environment.